Featured Products

A Taylor acoustic guitar with a light-colored wood body and a dark fretboard. The guitar is shown from the front, facing the viewer. It has a classic acoustic shape with a single cutaway on the right side. The headstock is dark with six tuning pegs. The bridge is dark and features the Taylor logo. The soundhole is large and has a decorative rosette. The fretboard is dark with light-colored frets. The body is made of a light-colored wood, possibly spruce or cedar, with a natural finish. The guitar is set against a plain white background.
