DigiTech XDD DigiDelay Delay Pedal

DigiTech XDD DigiDelay 4 Second Delay Pedal

The DigiDelay pedal gives you loads of delay time, with up to 4 seconds of delay available. This is more than is found in many studio-quality, rack-mounted delay processors. And that’s just the beginning! The DigiDelay also lets you select various delay types such as stereo ping pong and tape delay, and other phat delay sounds, plus tap tempo so you can set the delay time exactly to the beat (just hold, then tap the footswitch with your foot). Controls feature Level, Repeat, Time, and Range. Outputs include Left/Mono and Right.

Up to 4 seconds of delay

7 different delay types plus Tap Tempo

Stereo and switchable CIT™ Cabinet Modeling outputs

DigiDelay 4 Second Delay Pedal

With up to 4 seconds of delay, which is more than most studio processors, your creativeness will have no limits! The DigiDelay pedal gives you 7 different types of delay to choose from which include tape, modulated, reverse, and a looper that will allow for an infinite amount of 4 second layers.

Don’t settle for sub-par craftsmanship or limited options in a pedal. Go for quality and go with DigiTech. This rugged metal chassis will stand the test of time and offers further options like dual mono and stereo outputs as well as switchable cabinet modeling.
