Fender CD100 LH Left-Handed Acoustic Guitar

The CD-100 has been the choice of thousands as their first “real” acoustic for a simple reason: Its combination of good quality and excellent value make it perfect for anyone who wants to play a comfortable satin-finish guitar without a huge investment. While excellent for students, the CD-100 Left-Handed is more than just a beginner’s instrument; it’s also perfect for anyone who wants a second guitar for traveling, playing at the beach or around the campfire, and more. With great traditional looks, excellent tone and fine design details, it gives the impression of a much more high-end instrument.
